A New Restaurant Brings Frontier Food and Drink to Pendleton

Boomtown Biscuit and Whiskey Bar is Cincinnati's first progressive biscuit restaurant, and will be located in the city's Over-the-Rhine/Pendleton neighborhood. Boomtown intends to provide a trendy yet comfortable atmosphere for diners to enjoy a creative and upscale interpretation of American fare that was favored by pioneer settlers. Boomtown will offer frontier food and drink, creating one-of-a-kind biscuit sandwiches and American brunches including gluten-free and vegetarian options as well as an extensive selection of whiskey at a very affordable price.

Finance Fund Capital Corporation (FCAP) is providing a $100,000 small business loan for equipment and various start-up costs. Cincinnati's Streetcar will provide easy access to the restaurant and bar for the residents and professionals located in the Central Business District. Also, due to the restoration and expansion of the nearby Ziegler Park, significant free parking for Boomtown customers will be available.

Majority owner Paul Neumann has 16+ years of restaurant/bar experience. His analytical experience provides a unique skill set and has led him to many successful restaurant endeavors, including systems and processes used today to continue to drive brand enrichment, sales growth, and profit margin.

In addition to Paul's experience, Christian Gill will bring his culinary expertise to Boomtown as its executive chef. He has a combined 12+ years of experience in food, beverage, and events with focus on simplicity with animated flavors. FCAP's small business loan will enable Boomtown to hire an additional 15 part-time positions and 10 full-time positions.

"FCAP is confident that Paul and Christian have the experience and knowledge to make Boomtown a highly acclaimed dining spot in this fast growing Cincinnati restaurant scene," said FCAP's Credit Officer, Kelly Cook. "Currently, there are no existing "competitors" for a single menu item concept focused on buttermilk biscuits in the tristate area of Cincinnati."
